LOCAL NEWS AND HOME READING,

PUBLISHED AT BLOOMFIELD, ESSEX CO., NEW JERSEY,

Bloomfield Publishing Company.

$2.00 a Year, in advance. Single Copies, 5c.

THE EDITORIAL AND NEWS DEPARTMENTS ARE UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF A BOARD OF DIRECTORS, BY WHOM THE EDITORS ARE SELECTED AND THE BUS-INDES OF THE NEWSPAPER CONTROLLED.

SUBSCRIPTIONS, ADVERTISEMENTS AND COMMUNICA-"THE BLOOMPIELD CITIZEN, P. O. Box 240, BLOOM-POST OFFICE.

ALL COMMUNICATIONS SHOULD BE ACCOMPANIED BY THE AUTHOR'S NAME, IN CONFIDENCE, OR POR

WHILE IT IS THE FULL INTENTION OF THE EDITORS TO ALLOW THE LARGEST LIBERTY TO CONTRIBU-WE DO NOT THERESY ENDORSE THEIR OPINIONS, OR ARE IN ANY SENSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THEM. TO THE OFFICE NOT LATER THAN THURSDAY EVE-

MANENT RATES, APPLY AS ABOVE.

IN THE CURRENT NUMBER.

LICENSES TO SELL LIQUOR.

days before the close of its recent session, Bloomfield it shall not be unlawfully passed a statute amending the law regulating applications to the Court of Common Pleas of each county for a license to freeholders, who were not required to state their residences, or where the land condition of grub into that of butterfly, churlish or uncivil. So we must not assow which it is thoroughly apparent." And which they owned was located.

designate the locality and building where it is proposed to keep such inn or saloon. and also provides that every freeholder who shall sign a recommendation for the members of the organization. granting of such license shall, in such recommendation, clearly designate his filment of a long cherished hope. Hither- entertainments, and far enough out for would be a most opportune time to make censes could be renewed.

which has caused all the trouble to the an opportunity to join the temporary or them, and to improve them as he can.

at the outset that we do not intend here have been expected—for there are a large fense, and equally to avoid taking offense T. E. Hayes and E. Wilde will be glad to and now to discuss the temperance ques- number of persons who are always influ- himself. Where there are as many pebtion, or in any way to treat of the moral enced by considerations of the responsibles in the stream as there are in metrocharacter of the business. That may bility and constitution of such an as-politan business life, these wear off each well be left for the future. We only wish sociation. But we think that the gentle-others' sharp corners. The attrition is to draw attention to the law as it stands men who met on Monday evening should on the statute books, and to give our not be grieved that they could not invite Thus a city man in a country home from the sole agents. Slate: of the will be country home from the sole agents.

townships. We think the new law a step in the confidence of their fellow citizens. T right direction. Heretofore so little was at least of them are practical fire required of the twelve freeholders who two are possessed of large experie thought any particular saloon necessary, the insurance business, and the r that no difficulty was found in procuring honorably earned their position the requisite number of signatures; but thoroughness with which they now, when they have to declare the gaged in the preliminary work building in which the business is to be been required. carried on, and further, what property It is no part of our pr they own in this township, and so give the adjectives upon th public a chance to see how far they are With their oppor willing to go to get a drink, and how come an oppor much property they own with which to hop ulnes pay for it, we are of the opinion that Bu

CLES, HAVING PROPER STANF AND ADDRESS, WILL the man who disobeys the law and sells are happy to feel that the wisdom is there Next Wednesday evening the subject without a license, or on the Sabbath day, and ready for use. or who turns his inn or tavern into a disorderly house, is outside the law, and Tors, IT MUST BE DISTINCTLY UNDERSTOOD THAT deserves no protection from any source If the liquor dealers in this township who regularly obtain and pay for their NEWS ITEMS, NOTICES AND REPORTS MUST BE SENT licenses, and who are respectable men and keep orderly houses, would but con-NING OF EACH WEEK, IF THEY ARE TO APPEAR sult their own interests in the matter we think they would unite with our peo TRANSIENT NOTICES, FIFTY CENTS FOR EIGHT LINES, ple in an effort to rid the town of those MACH INSERTION. FOR LARGER SPACE AND PER- who seek to secure the profits of the busiwithin the limitations above shown.

As we said before, the sale of liquor is The Legislature of this State, a few lawful: let us therefore see to it that in

THE FIRE ASSOCIATION.

The old law provided merely that the ciation upon the enthusiasm and good Africa the "boers" of the Orange Free or an editorial. "He can't disguise his DR. CHAS. H. BAILEY. sense which have marked their proceed- State are merely brave and independent style," says the critic. "Now, for examand we shall expect to behold them re- ciate wrong ideas with the word. The new law provides that in every ap- splendent in all the varied beauty of their It is true that, often, the nearest per- person never touched a pen upon! So plication made to the Court of Common new uniforms at no very distant day. son is the least kind, and, especially in a they go, these guessers, and the editorial Pleas for a license to keep an inn and The promptness with which our citizens great city, the next-door resident is ut- board holds its five tongues. tavern, or a saloon, he application shall have responded to the call for contributerly unknown to you and you to him. designate the locality and building where tions is not less notable than the readiness with which these same citizens have, ban life, then, that it is possible to have To The Bloomfield Citizen: in a large number of cases, become actual neighbors and to be neighborly. To I would suggest as an improvement and nature of the real property by virtue quate fire protection, and the Newark de- advantage.

tion of the fire rates.

permanent organization, inasmuch as in the best sense—and can be, in the best ately. It was well known that the April is passed upon the character of the apterms of court would open in a few days, and that this amendment could not be so widely published as to be complied with to any large extent by those desiring licenses.

If the State means to permit the sale of liquor at all, it is only fair that full notice of important changes in the laws company; Mr. W. B. Chambers is regulating its sale should be had. How-highly esteemed among our younger to the apparatus to be purchased.

The officers of this new and we trust playment, are not cooped to like sick social gather the best 50 c. tea in Essex County. It will pay to look into this!

Boots And Shoes.—Bloomfielders will find a fine assortment at Albert & Bays nearly opposite the D., L. & W. R. R. depot.

Boots and the their store. They claim to sell the best 50 c. tea in Essex County. It will pay to look into this!

Boots And Shoes.—Bloomfielders will find a fine assortment at Albert & Bays nearly opposite the D., L. & W. R. R. depot.

Boots and the best 50 c. tea in Essex County. It will pay to look into this!

Boots And Shoes.—Bloomfielders will find a fine assortment at Albert & Bays nearly opposite the D., L. & W. R. R. depot.

Residence: Hillside Ave., alk in London. A great many others may other a great many others may other and the chickens. Book-club. I'de to sell the best 50 c. tea in Essex County. It will pay to look into this!

Boots And Shoes.—Bloomfielders will find a fine assortment at Albert & Bays nearly opposite the D., L. & W. R. R. depot.

Residence: Hillside Ave., alk in London. A great many others may other a great many others may other a great many others may be a great many others may other the best for th regulating its sale should be had. How- highly esteemed among our younger thut a great many others murests are cre- tention of our readers to an advertiseever, we presume our Solons did not in- men, and Mr. Tower is a gentleman whose ang at home. I belong to tren grow up ment in another column of Thomas D. Baxter, who has rented an office over ever, we presume our Solons did not intend to do anything hostile to the saloon energy and capacity are thoroughly appears, for it was this same legislature in the same in this same legislature in the same in this same legislature in the same in this same legislature in the same in with fairness, and that they possess revoir.

some of our freeholders would be almost association be no agreed in any sense to as willing to sign the temperance pledge belong to the kiconwed order of orna- On Tuesday evening Mr. Duffield deas the saloon keeper's application for a mental societies. Is active members— livered the second lecture of his course. MARIE LOVELL BROWN, the men who run This business of selling liquor is a law- who co-operate win the Fire Marshal- gave a brief account of the novelist's life, ful one. The State as a body politic has must be as reliable ad prompt as they showing how, in David Copperfield, the always declared in favor of permitting have hitherto prove themselves enthu- author had drawn the character of mem- Mr. Richard Hoffman. the business, and against anything like siastic and persevering. There is a fine bers of his own family. Then followed Mr. Augustin Cortada. prohibition; but the State has with body of young men aready enlisted, and a careful, just, and discriminating analy- Chickering & Sons. equal firmness insisted upon its supreme they should have roon in their ranks— sis of Dickens's work and character. To Address: Care of Mr. John Newton, Franklin St. right to pass laws from time to time im- and we believe this istheir purpose-for all lovers of his writings this must have posing restrictions and conditions, and every good citizen of proper bodily been especially interesting. The illus- PAUL G. BOTTICHER otherwise restraining the traffic within strength and correct labits who may be trative readings were much enjoyed by bounds which we think are none too willing to join them. We do not under the audience. Mr. Stiggins's temperance stand that there is any deficiency thus lecture was particularly well rendered. It is the undoubted right of any person far, in the representation of all classes of We are pleased to note a very decided bolding a license from our courts to the community, among their members, increase in the number present. We carry on his business in the manner des- We sincerely hope that there will not be. hope the attendance will increase still ignated by law, but it is no less the right Mr. Marsh is an employee of the Messra. further, so that the faculty may feel jusof every citizen to demand that the sale Peloubet, and the active members of the tifled in making the lecture-room just of liquor shall only be permitted by actual fire company will be able in due twice its present size. We would suggest THOMAS B. BAXTER, PIELD, NEW JERSEY." OUR OFFICE IS OVER THE those who in good faith comply with the time, to form their own by-laws and to that next time the faculty furnish a little letter of the statute under which they assist him in making our village fire de more light, and that if the carpet on the partment a credit to the place. A great platform were arranged in less neglige deal will of course depend upon the wis-PUBLICATION. REJECTED OR UNAVAILABLE ARTI- accordance with its requirements; but dom of the officers already chosen, but we of things.

> THE present issue of THE CITIZEN con- THE CITIZEN has received such cordial published two weeks since. The writer justified in enlarging the paper. tion to his views, as published.

> The neighbor was originally the "nighboor"-the nearest tiller of the soil. The word "boor" has taken to itself a very of the editors to be approached by a

NEIGHBORLINESS

the quiet and peace of a home, near worthy the support of the CITIZEN, the place of residence, and also the location to the village has been without any ade rest and health, is therefore added this this improvement, before any rebuilding of the ownership of which he shall sign partment has been the sole reliance in the ownership of which he shall sign partment has been the sole reliance in the country."

A suburban residence is not the same large number of people to be able to pass the event of a large fire. The distance thing as "living in the country." To to and fro between the Centre, the depot, that any license which shall be granted has been great and the water supply the most of persons the country is a etc., on one side, and Westminster upon any application which does not poor, and even with that help the recent synonym for dullness and narrow ideas. Church and the eastern section of town comply with the above requirements conflagrations have been disastrous.

The prejudice which a city-bred man generally on the other, without doubling point Peters or Point Baptist. Some feels towards his country friend is in-The fact that such new requirements have also increased far beyond any proper stinctive. He apparently fancies that as it would be necessary to remove at had been imposed was not known either or ordinary standard in consequence of farmer knows nothing of books, and least one house on the west side of to the applicants for licenses or, in some this perilous state of affairs. And there that to be in the country is to be out of Franklin Street, but the expense would J. OGDEN CLARK, cases, even to the courts themselves, and is reason to think that those who have the world. But a suburban residence is improvement. I hope the CITIZEN will the result in this county was, that as so handsomely subscribed to the present anything within fifty miles of a metropo- advocate it. Yours, etc., none of the new applications complied association, have more than compensated lis; and when one is only a dozen miles with the law, none of the expiring li- themselves by the probable future reduc- distant-as we are—the metropolis practically vitalizes the conduct and charac-The Constitution of this State provides For the quietness, steadiness, and efficiter of the suburb. In this respect the

that all public laws shall take effect on ency of this movement we have only words suburb is an immense advance over the the fourth day of July immediately suc-ceeding the date of their passage, unless of praise. While those engaged in it have country residence. It possesses the pure naturally been from the number of our air and the wide space and the opportu-ket (who, by the way, sells as fine a the Legislature shall in the act itself di- youngermen, they have shown an amount nities of health-and it makes available quality of meat as can be found anyrect that the law shall take effect at some of prudence and even conservatism in the best side of city life, too. You can where), has found his business growing their course which will commend them have neighbors in the suburb—neighvide with Charley and Fred., who are The law of which we are speaking conto the public for further support when-bors with city ideas, with broad views, now partners in the firm. (See adv't.) tained the words: "And be it further ever it is needed. The canvass of the and with tolerant opinions. A city enacted, that this act shall take effect town was thorough, and every person of man soon learns to make the best of his immediately." And it is this clause available age or character was afforded surroundings, to take things as he finds ganization. If some did not at once im- He is apt to see the angles of another In discussing this law, we desire to say prove this occasion, it is only what might character, and to avoid what gives of their gardens may find everything in the views as to the effect of the amendment them, as existing members, to vote for a within reach of town is a "suburban" Broad Street, Broadfield, N. J. In the first place, we think that this these same contributors are to be again was one of those public laws which ought not to have taken effect immediately. And this will take place before any vote of the care to be again sense, a neighbor. He care know the care to be again sense, a neighbor. He care know the care to be again sense, a neighbor. The wife and giving away majolica ware, crockery, and this will take place before any vote children who remain at home, while the ately. It was well known that the April is passed upon the character of the ap- bread-winner goes to his daily profes- or coffee at their store. They claim to only too glad to give all the support in their power, by public meetings, resolutions, and other expressions of their interest in any measures tending to regulate or diminish the sale of liquor in the townships.

Leaf of the city and good judgment.

To aid these officers there has be refreshing, but in large doses, existere polite body is asking the question: "What is going on at Thistle's, No. 761 Broad Street, Newark, that draws such a elected a Board of Trustees, in whose contonous, or dreadfully naiseation sham we trowd?" And the universal answer is:

mendation it is scant praise to say the cording to the amount of your expern we have they represent all sections of the towns are not that the sale of liquor in the townships.

Lori localities is

SEMINARY LECTURES.

the machine and The subject was Dickens. The lecturer of the lecture will be Charles Kingsley.

tains a communication on cheap homes, support and encouragement from its in reply to our editorial on that subject, patrons and subscribers that we feel speaks from experience, and shows that This we do with the present issue, he is familiar with the matter. It will be increasing the size of the page from observed that he agrees with us that 14 x 20 to 16 x 22. This gives us an there is a demand for such houses, but he additional column on every page, and thinks the expense would exceed our es lengthens each column about two inches. timates. As a full discussion of the facts THE CITIZEN is now fully up to regulaness without intending to conduct it ought to result in the erection of several tion size, and we ask both subscribers and cheap homes, we are glad to call atten- advertisers to observe our, improved facilities in contents, convenience, and general comfortableness. Send in your favors at once!

Northing is more amusing than for one We heartily congratulate the Fire Asso- unpleasant meaning, and yet in South friend upon the authorship of an article then and there, names just the article that

A Suggested Improvement.

We have thus at last among us the ful- enough to the metropolis for all the extension of Fremont Street from Frankis done in the "burnt district." It JOHN E. WILSON, M.D.,

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Notices will be inserted under this heading

THOSE who have not yet commenced line of seeds at Baker & Hubbell's, while furnish the tools, at a trifle above cost. SAVE money and time, by having your pictures framed in town; also, buy the EDWIN A. RAYNER, offering in his Spring Clearing Sale." Certainly our people are now given an opportunity to lay in their stock of Sumnow is, to mer reading, as well as to furnish or poor, and replenish their libraries with Books of where fambut the city, dand poky dand poky dand poky and the prices such as have never before and the prices such as have never before neighborli; been offered, and probably will not again be. The handsome Fruit Plaques, which birit is cre- have been presented to every purchaser, and morals will to-morrow give way to a souvenir saides and no parable worth possessing, and which has been christened "That Japanese Baby," which, owing to its cost, can only be presented cht-think- to those buyers whose purchases amount to 25 cents or more.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

Teacher of Plano.

Architect

751 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

Essex County Bank Building.

Real Estate and Insurance Broker.

Rosidence : Washington Avenue, Bloomfield Over the Post-office, Bloomfield, 800 Broad St., Newark, N. J. agent for all first-class Fire Insurance Companies

DR. JOSEPH A. DAVIS,

Franklin Street, cor. Fremont.

DR. W. H. WHITE.

Office Hours: 8 to 9 A.M: 1 to 3; 7 to 8 P.M

Next the Westminster Presb. Church BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

Hours: Until 9 A.M.; 1 to 2 P.M.; 6 to 8 P.M.

Physician and Surgeon,

MONROE PLACE.

Office Hours: 8 to 10; 1 to 3; after 7 P.M.

DR. E. M. WARD,

East Park Place.

Office Hours: 7 to 9 A.M.; 1 to 3; after 7 ...

Homoopathic Physician and Surgeon

Bloomfield Ave., near Broad Street, BLOOMFIELD, N. J. Office Hours: 816 to 10: 6 to 716.

Attorney at Law and Master in Chancery,

MONTCLAIR, N. J.

WHITEHEAD & GALLAGHER,

Law Offices. 745 Broad Street, Newark, N. J

CYRUS PIERSON has just received at HALSEY M. BARRETT.

Attorney and Counsellor at Law. Office, 750 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

> Residence : Elm Street, Bloomfield Acknowledgments, etc., taken.

Attorney at Law,

Office, 757 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

Residence: Washington Street, Bloomfie Acknowledgments, etc., taken.

Counsellor at Law.

Office, 750 Broad Street, Newark, N. J. Residence: Hillside Ave., Bloomfield. Cramination of Titles in New York and Jersey a specialty.

695 Broad Street,

NEWARK, N. J.

BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

P. O. Box 27. Residence: Cor. Broad and Benson Sts.

REPAIRING ATTENDED TO AROMPTLY. Pive doors south of N. & N. Y. R. R. Depot

S. D. LAUTER,

Piano Fortes & Parlor Organ

Steinway, Gabler, Lauter, Chickering,

and all other

FIRST-CLASS PIANOS. Mason & Hamlin, Shoninger, Lauter, Woods & Co., and other first-class

PARLOR ORGANS

New and Second Hand Instruments at Lowest Prices for Cash or Small Monthly Payments. Also to Let, and Rent Applied on Purchase. Old Instruments taken in exchange. Pianos and Organs Tuned, Repaired, Boxed, Shipped,

H. H. SMITH & CO.

and Stored.

Fine lines of MEN'S AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING, in all the latest styles, at LOW PRICES.

SPECIAL DEPARTMENT FOR CUSTOM WORK 789 BROAD STREET, NEWARK, N. J.

The Central Dry Goods Store.

FRAZEE, CONNET & CO., No. 659 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

ONLY GOOD GOODS.

ALWAYS LARGE VARIETY. UNIFORMLY LOW PRICES.

We ask an early inspection of our unusually attractive stock of Black Silks. Satins, Brocades, and French Wool Dress Fabrics. Our lines are very complete, and every facility is offered to customers in matched trimmings, buttons, garnitures, and other articles needed to con plete the costume. So, too, we confidently commend our department for the sale of WHITE GOODS, LACES, AND EMBROIDE-RIES. No finer stock of Laces, Made up Laces, and Fine Embroideries can be found in Newark or New York.

Spring and Summer Styles

OF READY-MADE

For Men, Youths, Boys, and Children, at the original

ONE PRICE STORE

MCGREGOR & CO

Our inducements are Latest Styles, Finest Goods, Lowest Prices. Your inspection is solicited, without obligation

Spring Overcoats, $6.00, strictly all wool. Those for $9.00 and $12.00 substantially made, and of really superior quality, while those for $15.00, $16.00, and $18.00 are made and trimmed EQUAL to the FINEST CUSTOM WORK.

In Black Cloth, Elastique, Piques, French and English Diagonals.

Dress Suits.

Business Suits, $7.00 TO $20.00.

We invite special attention to our strictly all-wool suits, in several different styles, at the low price of $10.00. We offer nothing in the way of clothing but thoroughly reliable fabrics manufactured with conscientions care, in the latest Spring Style, and marked at figures which we know to be lower than the same qualities are sold elsewhere. Every garment positively our own manufacture. No misfits. Goods exchanged or money refunded

THE IRON FRONT,

850 & 852 Broad St., Newark, N. J